June 29 - '74

Still he would not hit hard. I think his "Who are the propagators of Atheism?" in the Pop. Sci. is well said.

We heard through the Sages yesterday that burglars had entered Father's house, & stolen May's jewelry. I hope that is all they have taken.

Right - O my love - fourteen years ago, what a dear, beautiful, boundless world was opening! - The world that held you - forever, & forever - It was all clear then - Still there is the world dear & beautiful; still holding you - now all is now - now. & this pieces now, into which I must crowd my future. While I have you I can - & because I have you I cannot!

Good night -

Mon. A.M. Was not Betty one whom you promised to let know when Samuel might seen? I wrote to Thekla last week, & as the letter had not gone, put in the notice Sarah sent.

The thermometer will reach the 90's to day.
Happy that the work is done! I am not imminently that there is still much to do.

I found my place at the head of the table surrounded with flowers this morning, & had to take 38 strokes from Lisey.

Dearest love to all - & thank Sarah again for the paper. Hot weather will not seem so hot to her since Samuel is complete.
